

ASSESSOR AND GROUP FACILITATORS - (CONTRACTOR ROLES)

Preventing Violence against Women

Te Araitanga Tukino Whare Tangata

We are a well-established NGO with over 35 years' experience facilitating programmes for women who have experienced domestic violence. We recognise the role of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and the necessity of providing evidence-based, culturally appropriate practice. Our programmes are approved by MSD, MOJ and Corrections and we have a highly skilled team committed to supporting the safety and wellbeing of all wahine.

Ensuring our staff and contractors represent the communities we serve is a priority for Innecity Women's group and as such we are seeking experienced, qualified, and committed practitioners with lived experience in Te Ao Māori and/or the Pasifika community for assessment and group facilitation work at our sites in Grey Lynn and Papatoetoe.

Inner City Women's Group

Is a domestic violence prevention agency based in Auckland – established in 1988.

We provide education and support programmes for women in:

- Freedom from abuse and violence
- Women and anger
- Assertiveness, communication, confidence building skills and strategies.
- Parenting support for women affected by domestic violence
- Prevention and violence education
- Coping with the aftermath of trauma

Join our highly skilled team and enjoy working in a stimulating and supportive environment.

Applications in confidence

Please send short CV and cover letter to:

rikeeta@icwg.org.nz

The roles involve:

- Facilitation of group programmes which may include evening work.
- Client Assessments

Preferred skills & experience

- Demonstrated lived experience in Te Ao Māori and/or the Pasifika community
- Demonstrable knowledge & understanding of the nature and effects of domestic violence.
- A gendered analysis of family violence.
- Training/experience working with abused women.
- Training/ experience in group process/group dynamics.
- Demonstrable understanding of power and control model for explaining the dynamics of violent domestic relationships.
- Demonstrable social/political analysis of the role that broader society/community may play in maintaining women in victim roles.
- Cultural /ethnic sensitivity and awareness of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/Treaty of Waitangi principles.
- Commitment to ongoing training/supervision.
- Evident self-awareness and resolution on personal abuse issues.
- Affiliation, or working towards affiliation, to appropriate professional body.
- Good computer skills.
- The ability to complete organisational paperwork as required.

If you're excited about this role and think you have what it takes, but your experience doesn't align 100% we still want to hear from you and would encourage you to apply.